TAX-FREE PROVISIONING
CHAMPAGNE, WINE & SPIRITS

UPDATED ON 15 APRIL 2018

MONTENEGRO · SUMMER 2018

WELCOME!

Welcome to Montenegro, where wine provisioning is easy and priced right.

If you are a returning friend and customer, we are delighted to see you back. Our portfolio has once again expanded for summer 2018, with new vintages and mini-verticals in the traditional areas of Burgundy, Bordeaux, the Rhône, Piedmont and Tuscany.

Riesling enthusiasts will be over the moon with our vastly expanded German wine selection. We are very happy to welcome Joh. Jos. Prüm (Mosel) and Dönnhoff (Nahe) to our wine family, as well as Weingut Thörle (Rheinhessen) whose young Rieslings and Pinots Noir were a revelation to us during our autumn wine-buying expedition.

Lovers of premium Spanish wines will be particularly happy with our deeper selections from Rioja, Ribera del Duero and Toro, especially among Bodegas Vega-Sicilia.

Finally, our fortified wine and spirits selection has been expanded with a lovely range of Sherry from the famed Lustau cellars (once again named Best Sherry Producer in the World), some Brandy de Jerez, a rare vintage Cognac from Delamain and some amazingly good Vermouth from Cocchi to make your Negronis even better.

In the (hopefully unlikely) event that we are missing some of your favourites, please let us know so that we can make it a priority for next year's selection.

Meanwhile, our team would like to thank you for returning to Montenegro and wish you a wonderful and successful summer.

Djordje, Mike, Nataša & Stefan

CONTENTS

We are once again offering a simplified catalogue so that choosing your wine is easy. The wines are organized primarily by region, though with special sections just for Champagne and sparkling wines, and rosé. As we are often asked for local suggestions, we've put together a "best of" section of wines from this side of the Adriatic and the broader region. They're all worth a try and we're sure you'll be delighted.

It really is very easy, but may be different from what you're used to. To avoid any confusion, we've outlined all you need to know in the following few Q&A paragraphs:

WINE SOURCING & STORAGE

Where is the wine located right now?

All of our wine is here in Montenegro, held in a bonded, climate-controlled cellar that we custom built for proper wine storage. We are rather fanatical about how our wine is looked after, but isn't that a good thing?

So I don't need to worry about shipping?

Nope. Unlike many other suppliers, we are not a logistics company that sources and ships on demand. We stock all of these wines. So you never have to worry about the risks of missed connections, late arriving cargo, customs delays, your wine being bumped in favour of passenger luggage or, indeed, how the wine is treated during transit. And obviously, last-minute orders or augmentations are easy for us to accommodate.

Where did you source the wine?

All of our wine is purchased directly from the producer and never second-hand, at auction or on the re-sale market. This way, we can ensure the provenance of every bottle, and that it has been perfectly looked after since it was made. The only exception is Bordeaux fine wine, of course, which is sold by chateaux to négociants. So we source from two of the best négociants who have kept the wines exclusively in their own perfect cellars.

WHERE & WHEN TAX-FREE IS AVAILABLE

Where can I collect tax-free wine?

The best place, at the moment, is in Porto Montenegro (Tivat). Kotor is also possible, but as a commercial port it operates under different rules than a marina and can be very expensive. Unfortunately, tax-free deliveries are not currently permitted in the ports of Budva, Bar or Ulcinj.

Do I need to be berthed in Porto Montenegro to collect there?

No. You can, for example, stay in Kotor and then check out from Porto Montenegro, collecting your wine at the same time as you check out. Some other variations are permitted, so please check with us in advance to confirm.

I am coming to Porto Montenegro just for tax-free fuel. Can I also collect tax-free wine?

Of course! Many boats do this, and we would deliver the wine to your boat concurrently with your bunkering. It takes no extra time.

When can I take delivery? Do I have to wait until departure?

If you are staying in Porto Montenegro – including at anchor - you can collect tax free wine at any time. Indeed, it is often better to collect when you first arrive than when you depart.

In Kotor, tax free deliveries are only permitted on departure. You should allow some extra time for the requisite customs procedure (only required in Kotor).

THE PROCEDURESo how does it work?

In Porto Montenegro, the whole procedure usually takes less than 20 minutes and you don't have to leave the boat. Here is what will happen:

- 1) At the agreed time, we will come to your boat to collect a few documents and so that you may stamp the official invoices.
- 2) We then take everything to customs for their counter-signature. This usually takes about 10 minutes.
- 3) We then return to the boat to deliver the wine, return your documents and collect payment.

That's it!

What documentation do I need?

At the time of delivery, we will need the following:

- 1) A photocopy of the boat's registration certificate;
- 2) Your boat's stamp; and
- 3) Your official crew list (and passenger list, if you have one). This must be the official document generated by the harbour master on your arrival, with the official Montenegrin stamp. This document will normally have your cruising vignette – or vignette number – attached as well.

Can I pick the wine up somewhere instead of having it delivered?

Customs law requires that all tax-free wine be delivered directly to the boat. In some circumstances, delivery to the boat's tender may be permitted.

TAX FREE ALLOWANCESHow much can I take tax free?

On departure, a boat may take 3 litres of wine and / or spirits per person on board. So if you have 10 passengers and 10 crew, then you may take 60 litres of wine (20 people x 3 litres = 60 litres). 60 litres is 80 standard bottles.

In advance, a boat may take 1 litre of wine and / or spirits per person on board, per day remaining in Montenegro (up to a maximum of 7 days). So if you have 10 crew, and are departing in 6 days, then you may take 60 litres of wine (10 people x 6 days x 1 litre = 60 litres).

Please note that only people staying on board at the time of delivery – i.e. listed on your official crew or passenger manifest – may be counted towards the allowance. Passengers who have not yet arrived, or who have already departed, are ineligible to be counted.

Can I use both my advance delivery allowance and my departure allowance?

Yes, provided that you do not count the same day twice. For example, if you are in Montenegro for a week, you can take one set of wines when you arrive and a second set on departure. This is a good solution for boats that require quite a bit of wine.

Can I count days that I've already been in Montenegro?

For deliveries in advance, only the days remaining between the time of delivery and your departure may be counted. For this reason, it's best to take delivery as early as possible... your advance delivery allowance declines the closer you get to your departure.

Is there another advantage to taking the wine in advance?

When you take wine on departure, this literally means on departure: when you are checked out and ready to go, with all passengers on board. It won't delay you at all, as we will deliver the wine concurrently with your check-out procedure. However, we feel that it may be nicer for you to have the wine on board before your guests embark, all ready, properly chilled and waiting for them.

Naturally, taking delivery when you first arrive also means that you can focus on the other things that you need to do: like enjoying some down time and having fun in port!

What if I need more than my allowance permits?

In this case we can split the delivery between tax-free wine and tax-paid wine, for example through our retail partner Crush Wine Station. Naturally, we will bring the more expensive wines tax free and the less expensive wines tax paid, so as to minimize the extra cost to you.

Please note that many premium wines are only held in bond and may not be available tax paid... we regret if this impacts your selection but will do our best to offer a fabulous alternative.

PAYMENT STUFFHow may I settle up?

There are three options: cash, credit card (Visa or Mastercard only) or by bank transfer in advance. Remote credit card transactions are also OK. Unfortunately, under local financial regulations, we cannot accept bank transfers after the delivery date.

Are there any other costs?

All tax free deliveries are subject to a freight forwarding fee for customs documents, which we collect and remit on your behalf. In Porto Montenegro these are €50 per delivery, plus VAT ... so €60,50. There are no other costs or fees.

In Kotor, things are a bit different. Customs documents are required for each type of wine being delivered, so this can get quite expensive. A special, customs-sealed vehicle may also be required which, if available, can also be pricey during summer months. For this reason, we recommend that boats based in Kotor collect either in Porto Montenegro during check-out or take tax paid deliveries.

ANYTHING ELSE?

Yes: enjoy your time in Montenegro and have a wonderful cruise through the Adriatic!
